

ALREADY, JUST, STILL, YET

GAP FILLING

[Exercise 1]

Fill in the blanks with already, just, still, or yet.

Example:

I _____ haven't called Timothy to see how he is.

Answer:

I still haven't called Timothy to see how he is.

1. Paul is thirty-five but he _____ asks for money from his parents.
2. Conner has _____ decided what to do. Nothing could change his mind.
3. Look at Vicki. She has _____ taken her first step.
4. I have _____ finished with the cooking. What shall I do next?
5. Don't force us to eat this soup. We aren't hungry _____ .
6. You can't go out. You haven't cleaned your room _____ .
7. Daisy is _____ sitting in her room. When will she come out?
8. I have _____ come home. Can I call you a bit later?
9. Thank you for inviting me, but I have _____ seen that play.
10. Lily hasn't decided _____ which dress she wants to wear for Peter's party.
11. You have _____ started a new job. What could go wrong?
12. Perry hasn't met his love _____ . He is feeling lonely.
13. Is Emily _____ dating William? I thought they broke up.
14. I have _____ told you about the accident. Haven't you listened to me?
15. Kevin went to the shop but it was _____ closed.

ALREADY, JUST, STILL, YET

GAP FILLING

[Exercise 1]

ANSWERS

1. still.
2. already.
3. just.
4. just.
5. yet.
6. yet.
7. still.
8. just.
9. already.
10. yet.
11. just.
12. yet.
13. still.
14. just.
15. already.