

STILL, ALREADY, YET

[Exercise 2]

Fill in the blanks with still, already, or yet as in the example.

Example:

I _____ haven't remembered his name.

I have _____ remembered his name.

I haven't remembered his name _____ .

Answer:

I still haven't remembered his name.

I have already remembered his name.

I haven't remembered his name yet.

1. Carolina _____ hasn't heard the news.
Carolina has _____ heard the news.
Carolina hasn't heard the news _____ .
2. Martin has _____ done his homework.
Martin hasn't done his homework _____ .
Martin _____ hasn't done his homework.
3. We haven't eaten the cake _____ .
We _____ haven't eaten the cake.
We have _____ eaten the cake.
4. Jessie _____ hasn't watched the last episode of Star Wars.
Jessie has _____ watched the last episode of Star Wars.
Jessie hasn't watched the last episode of Star Wars _____ .

5. My parents _____ haven't bought a new car.
My parents haven't bought a new car _____ .
My parents have _____ bought a new car.
6. Aaron hasn't visited his brother _____ .
Aaron has _____ visited his brother.
Aaron _____ hasn't visited his brother.

STILL, ALREADY, YET

[Exercise 2]

ANSWERS

1. still / already / yet.
2. already / yet / still.
3. yet / still / already.
4. still / already / yet.
5. still / yet / already.
6. yet / already / still.