

CLAUSES OF CONTRAST AND PURPOSE

[ Exercise 4 ]

Rewrite the sentences using the words in brackets so that both sentences mean the same.

1. Despite going to bed early, I was tired in the morning. (even though)

---

2. Although Peter lost his camera, he enjoyed the trip. (in spite of)

---

3. Daisy is a great friend even though she is always late. (despite)

---

4. Rachel made a sandwich so that she can have a snack on the way. (so as to)

---

5. I drank two cups of coffee so that I didn't feel sleepy. (so as not to)

---

6. Despite the fact that it was the middle of June, I was wearing a sweater. (although)

---

7. Andrew ran fast in spite of being terribly overweight. (even though)

---

8. We got to the meeting on time even though there was a horrible traffic jam. (in spite of)

---

9. Ryan didn't call me last night because he didn't want to talk to me. (so as not to)

---

10. They are saving some money so that they can buy a house. (in order to)

---

CLAUSES OF CONTRAST AND PURPOSE

[ Exercise 4 ]

A N S W E R S

1. Even though I went to bed early, I was tired in the morning.
2. In spite of losing his camera, Peter enjoyed the trip.
3. Daisy is a great friend despite being always late.
4. Rachel made a sandwich so as to have a snack on the way.
5. I drank two cups of coffee so as not to feel sleepy.
6. Although it was the middle of June, I was wearing a sweater.
7. Even though Andrew was terribly overweight, he ran fast.
8. We got to the meeting on time in spite of a horrible traffic jam.
9. Ryan didn't call me last night so as not to talk to me.
10. They are saving some money in order to buy a house.