

FUTURE PERFECT CONTINUOUS

NEGATIVE

Put in the verbs in brackets into the gaps to make negative sentences.
Use the Future Perfect Continuous.

Example:

In December, Tim _____ coffee for over a year. (not / to drink)

Answer:

In December, Tim will not have been drinking coffee for over a year.

1. I _____ for more than a year by July. (not / to smoke)
2. He _____ long enough before he runs a marathon.
(not / to train)
3. She _____ long enough to get fit by her wedding.
(not / to exercise)
4. They _____ the USA long enough to start speaking English before they return to Portugal. (not / to stay in)
5. He _____ money long enough by the next year to buy a house. (not / to save)
6. By January, I _____ her for 2 months. (not / to call)
7. By March, he _____ for a year because of his injury.
(not / to jog)
8. She _____ since 2018 by the next month.
(not / to sing)

9. They _____ anything new for a long time
by September. (not / to paint)

10. He _____ Harry Potter since 2016 by Christmas.
(not / to read)

FUTURE PERFECT CONTINUOUS

NEGATIVE

ANSWERS

1. will not have been smoking.
2. will not have been training.
3. will not have been exercising.
4. will not have been staying in.
5. will not have been saving.
6. will not have been calling.
7. will not have been jogging.
8. will not have been singing.
9. will not have been painting.
10. will not have been reading.