

PRESENT PERFECTCONTINUOUS*SINCE/FOR*[Exercise 2]

Put in for or since.

Example:

The mechanics have been repairing our car _____ three days.

Answer:

The mechanics have been repairing our car for three days.

1. Amelia has been looking for her glasses _____ 3 pm.
2. I have been reading this book _____ two hours.
3. You have been watching this movie _____ last Friday.
4. We have been discussing the film _____ the whole lesson.
5. Ellie has been living next to us _____ ten years.
6. We have been visiting each other _____ our childhood.
7. Our friends have been staying with us _____ last month.
8. You have been waiting for a promotion _____ some years.
9. Andy has been working as a sales manager _____ August.
10. Catherine has been cooking dinner _____ the whole afternoon.
11. Patricia has been making her report _____ 10 minutes already.
12. The child has been sleeping _____ 9 pm.

13. Tom has been working in the garden _____ he came back home.
14. That man has been standing at the door _____ some time.
15. Ron has been playing computer games _____ his parents went to work.

PRESENT PERFECT

CONTINUOUS

SINCE/FOR

[Exercise 2]

ANSWERS

1. since.
2. for.
3. since.
4. for.
5. for.
6. since.
7. since.
8. for.
9. since.
10. for.
11. for.
12. since.
13. since.
14. for.
15. since.