

TOO, ENOUGH

DIALOGUES

[Exercise 2]

Complete the sentences. Use too or enough with the adjectives in brackets.

Example:

A: This film is thrilling. Let's watch it.

B: No, I'm _____ right now. Let's watch it a bit later. (busy)

Answer:

A: This film is thrilling. Let's watch it.

B: No, I'm too busy right now. Let's watch it a bit later.

1. A: Are you happy about the results of your driving test?

B: Yes, I am _____, but the number of points they gave me for it could be bigger. (satisfied)

2. A: Can you take one more bottle of water with you?

B: No, my backpack is already _____ to carry. (heavy)

3. A: Why don't you enjoy your meat stew? It looks very good.

B: Yes, but it's not _____. It needs some salt and pepper. (tasty)

4. A: Do you always make decisions so fast?

B: Not always. But this case is _____ to delay with the solution. (simple)

5. A: We can go to the Maldives for two weeks next month.

B: Oh, how happy I am! Your suggestion is _____ to be true! (marvelous)

6. A: Why don't you read the books I took from the library yesterday?

B: They are not _____ for me. (interesting)

7. A: Can you translate this text without a dictionary?

B: I'm sorry, but no. This text is _____ for me. (difficult)

8. A: What do you think about that place to have a rest?

B: Everything is OK, but it's not _____ to relax completely. (peaceful)

9. A: Why have you put your sweater on? It's summer already.

B: Yes, but it's not _____ to go for a walk without it. (warm)

10. A: Are you going on vacation this summer?

B: No, I am _____ to go anywhere. I would rather stay at home.
(exhausted)

TOO, ENOUGH

DIALOGUES

[Exercise 2]

ANSWERS

1. satisfied enough.
2. too heavy.
3. tasty enough.
4. too simple.
5. too marvelous.
6. interesting enough.
7. too difficult.
8. peaceful enough.
9. warm enough.
10. too exhausted.